Afternoon Tea with The 29th Laird

'Royal Handwasher' and a member of the distinguished 'Royal Company of Archers', the King's bodyguard in Scotland.

Simon Houison Craufurd, the esteemed Laird of Craufurdland Castle, and his wife Adity, extends a warm welcome to your clients, inviting them into the ancient castle where they resides with their family. He will lead them on an outdoor tour of the castle's 700-year history, sharing anecdotes and fascinating historical insights and royal connections.

Inside, your clients will explore the Gothic hall, The Blue Dining Room, and King Charles' bedroom, each with captivating stories of Simon's ancestry and connections to royalty and Scottish historical figures, including William Wallace. The journey culminates in the Library, home to the family's collection of over 3,000 books spanning 5 centuries, while Simon regales your clients with family tales, during a delightful afternoon tea. Stories include that of Jock Houison saving King James on Crammond Brig, which led to the family becoming the 'Royal Handwasher'. This exceptional experience offers unparalleled authenticity and genuine historical intrigue.
